RE. Question Hour

MR. CHAIRMAN: Now special mentions. Shri Sukomal Sen.

SHRI A. G. KULKARNI (Maharashtra): Sir, before you go to special mentions, I was trying to draw your attention I thought you would call me. Sir, I wanted to request you Today, we have taken up only two questions. In the previous session we had achieved a rate of 8 to 10 questions. I would request you. The Ministers prepare. We also prepare. Money is spent. But questions are not progressing. There must be, Sir, a method. You call three, four, five and limit it to a certaintime limit. Unless we make 8 to 10 questions a day, we are not seriously doing our job. For heaven's sake, I request you. What Mr Tytler said is quite correct. There are very interesting questions for us. The Minister himself is saying. Last year also he said. Please arrange a discussion on education. Let us finish with it. But asking long questions, In the Question Hour, on policy matters is not the convention of the House.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Kindly sit down.

SHRI A. G. KULKARNI: I would only request you to bear with me and take up ten questions a day. Otherwise, we are not satisfied here.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I am willing to have 20 questions I have been asking for co-operation from the Members.
